No.	Query	Response
I.	Lot# 2 Storage model number and whether the support exists or not.	Storage model number can be accessed by the given serial number from OEM warranty will be 24/7.
II.	As you know that after US sanctions on Huawei IT-equipment "chipmakers like Intel and Broadcom stopped selling to Huawei" it's hard to manage the backline support, can we quote another brand? If yes kindly share the complete requirement	No its upgradation to the existing storage so new storage cannot be quoted.
III.	VMware support tenure to be mentioned and whether OEM or OLP is required.	VMware standard OLP warranty is considered to be standard.
